MEMORANDUM

To: Office of Admissions / Bar Examiners

From: Regulatory Office, Alabama State Bar

Date: January 25, 2021

Re: Artur Genestre Davis

For your records we are providing the following information regarding the application filed by the above-named attorney to sit for the Alabama State Bar Examination.

As of May 1, 2000, the Alabama State Bar no longer provides copies of bar applications, law student applications, or other contents of the attorneys file. Nor do we provide exam results (except the MPRE score under special circumstances). The following information is provided for your information in reference to their bar exam application:

Date application filed: March 1, 1994

Application Type: Admitted by Examination*
(see MPRE notation below)

Date of Admission: September 30, 1994

{*Since March 31, 1980, admission to the Bar has included the requirement that an applicant achieve a satisfactory minimum score on the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination (the "MPRE") in order to be admitted to practice. The satisfactory minimum score for admission was set at 75 on March 1, 1982.}

A Certificate of Good Standing is included for your records.

If you have any further questions, please contact our office.
